

Queen's College Medical Society Conference 2024

9.30am
Sunday 20th
October 2024

Conversations in Medicine

Mr Tim Goodacre - Surgery In Difficult Environments

Recently retired reconstructive plastic surgeon. Background work in resource poor settings, developing appropriate surgical services. Past Vice-President of RCSEng & President of BAPRAS.

Dr Gbemi David-West - Tackling health inequality

Obstetrics & gynaecology registrar in Oxford, with a special interest in women's health inequalities and a MSc in Medical Education.

Dr Victoria Bradley - Talking about dying

Victoria undertook specialist training in Thames Valley and has been a substantive Consultant in Palliative Medicine at OUH NHS Foundation Trust since 2019, where she is now Clinical Lead.

An Interview With Sir David Haslam

Writer and healthcare policy consultant, retired GP and former Chair of NICE, President & Chairman of the RCGP, and President of the BMA. Current Non-Exec Director on an NHS Trust.

Dr Caroline Elton - On doctors' mental health

Occupational and counselling psychologist who has specialised in training and supporting medical students and doctors for the past 25 years. Author of Also Human: The Inner Lives Of Doctors.

Early bird tickets are FREE and include lunch and refreshments!

Scan here to get your ticket

Shulman Auditorium, The Queen's College, High St, Oxford, OX1 4AW